

April 17, 2012

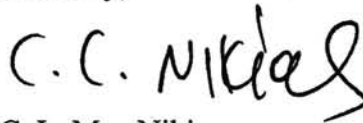

Dear USC faculty, staff, and students,

As we continue to mourn the loss of two treasured members of our Trojan Family, Ying Wu and Ming Qu, I want to personally invite you to a memorial service at 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday, April 18 in the Shrine Auditorium. I know we are all deeply saddened by these students' tragic deaths, and this will be an opportunity to come together and pay tribute to their lives, as well as their many accomplishments. It will also be an opportunity to mourn their passing as a community.

This event is open to the public, and non-hosted parking will be available at the Shrine Auditorium and on campus. We will open doors at 5:20 p.m. Any questions should be directed to USC's Office of Cultural Relations and University Events at (213) 740-6786.

I want to emphasize once again that our thoughts and sympathies remain very much with the families and friends of Ms. Wu and Mr. Qu.

Sincerely,

C. L. Max Nikias
President

via email